Our Cause and Vision
A Society motivated to give ever more effectively, transforming lives and communities around the world.

Our Mission
To promote and support strategic giving for more equitable and sustainable society.

Our Promise
We focus on effective giving and facilitate increase flow of resources from individuals and organisations to the non-profit sector for transforming human lives and communities.

Our Impact
Internationally, CAF works with over 3,000 companies, distributing funds in over 90 countries and manages over £1.5 billion for non-profits and donors.

Last year, CAF India helped more than 27,000 donors and supported 198 non-profits across 18 states in India.
Our Core Expertise

Our core activity is to promote effective giving. CAF India provides assistance to companies and individuals, covering the breadth of Philanthropy and Corporate Community Initiatives. For this purpose we work with donors and non-profit organisations to ensure that the funds directed are utilised effectively.

Corporate Giving

At CAF India we enable companies to strategically plan their giving and support community initiatives. We provide guidance and share best practices and ensure that your giving is safe, effective and delivers the maximum impact. With a network of validated NGO partners across the country, we seek to support issues ranging from education, health, early childhood development (balwadi), culture and heritage and disaster preparedness.

Donor Strategy Development

Building a long term strategy is key to making the most of your corporate responsibility. We are experts in developing corporate responsibility strategies and programmes tailored to your business’ objectives.

Give As You Earn

This is a flexible, regular and tax effective way for your employees to give to charity. It provides a great way of engaging your staff in your community investment as part of their benefits package and demonstrates our commitment to supporting the community, to both staff and wider stakeholders.

Matched Giving Programme

Your company can match the donations made by your employee to help increase the impact of their contributions. It is a highly flexible programme that can be tailored to match the money donated, time given or contributions raised and helps drive employee engagement.

Volunteering Programmes

With our extensive experience and detailed knowledge of volunteering, we can help design and deliver a bespoke volunteering programme exactly suited to your size and aims. We do this by identifying skill gaps in the NGO sector and matching these to your employees’ skill set.

Individual Giving

Whether you want to give 100 Rupees or 100 million Rupees, we’re here to help. Our range of services offers flexible ways for you to give to causes that matter to you.

Donor Advised Fund (DAF)

Used by an increasing number of donors, this high value Donor Advised Fund provides a flexible and tax efficient way to give to NGOs of your choice. As well as enabling you to invest in the Fund we will work with you to identify, design and support projects and report on the activity and impact of your cause.

Plan Your Giving

An easy to use account which provides a tax effective way of donating money into an account with CAF, once or multiple times. You can then make a considered decision to distribute the funds to a cause of your choice at any point in time.

Hundred Rupee Club

A simple way for people between the ages of 15-30 who are willing to donate 100 INR a month to support CAF India’s Social Change Fund. This fund finances innovative projects in education, health and livelihood.

Charity Gift Voucher

A perfect way to celebrate a birthday or special occasion. The charity voucher enables you to send a donation as a gift on behalf of your friend, relative or colleague.

Public Sector Enterprises (PSEs)

With over 10 years’ experience the CAF India team has considerable expertise in maximising corporate contributions in the most effective and transparent manner, supporting PSEs in making the best use of their resources for CSR.

Grant Making

At CAF India we believe that effective charity lies in the efficient use of the funds that our donors entrust to us. Our key strength lies in doing independent and in-depth due diligence of non-profits and providing an impartial and robust assessment of each one. This enables our donors to make an informed choice about their donations. To date we have helped fund over NGOs in 40 districts in 18 states across India through our partner NGOs.

NGO Causes

Through our in house expertise, we help design, develop and manage your sustainable giving programmes from a cause of your choosing. You also have the option of investing in our comprehensive programmes covering a range of causes, namely: education, health, early childhood development (balwadi), culture and heritage and disaster preparedness.

Our Values

Our values drive everything we do. We offer uncompromising integrity in our promises and action and confidence in all our partners and stakeholders. We undertake strict due diligence processes to ensure complete accountability and efficiency for each donor rupee. We constantly search for the most effective solutions.

Our key values are:

- Credence: Our 80 year track record of helping people give effectively has earned us the trust of charities and donors alike.
- Efficiency: We are enthusiastic about our ability to fuel positive change.
- Humanity: We deliver our professional service with a personal touch.
- Leadership: We are optimistic about the future and not afraid to take risks.
It gives a feeling of pride to put across this foreword for the year 2011 – 2012 which have been extremely well for effective social giving. We gave a new direction to philanthropy in India. We not only accomplished our goal of CAF India to be the umbrella of NGOs benefitted on leadership development. The provided advisory services to overseas clients on CSR set up, NGO due diligence and program evaluation. CAF India designed employee engagement space for companies through Give As You Earn and offered compelling volunteering opportunities. With pledges of over a million dollars in hand, CAF India also spearheaded the management of Coca Cola NDTV Support My School Campaign through a network of grass root NGOs covering 100 schools in 11 states of India. We also finalised our research on India Giving, a report which will be launched next year. Most of the power and impact of our work was derived from the quality of our relationships with NGOs and people closest to the issues we address. Our partners were vital contributors, and a shared understanding helped everyone work more effectively together.

Growth is only half of the story. The other half is change. Our innovative, consistent and competitive Grant making helped us reach out to thousands of beneficiaries and bridge borders in unique ways across sectors, geographies, donors and communities. In this pursuit of bringing change, what we have not changed are our values. We are mindful of how critical our core values are and decide on ways that are consistent with our values. These form an integral part of our practices and promises.

Testimonial

“We have been partnering with Charities Aid Foundation India for our payroll donation program for the last few years. This journey has been valuable for us in many ways. CAF India’s hands on expertise in facilitating a payroll program for corporates, its wide network of nonprofit partners across India has helped us implement and grow our program successfully.”

Kshitija Krishnaswamy
Vice President, Corporate Citizenship, Accenture

“CAF has been the backbone of our payroll giving program and without CAF we couldn’t have made the program such a big success. CAF ensures that the charities we support are verified and we are able to answer any query that a donor might have. With nearly 10000+ colleagues spread across multiple offices, it’s a huge challenge to keep payroll giving completely trustworthy. CAF helps Aon Hewitt overcome that challenge. We wish the CAF team the very best and many thanks to the team for helping large corporates like us to manage our CSR activities, its invaluable support.”

Bindumalini Krishnan, Senior Director
APAC operations, Aon Hewitt, Aon Cares leader

- Assess the impact of the programme, and continually adapt it to changing circumstances
- Help replicate and repeat successful programmes

GlaxoSmithKline Consumer Healthcare Services

Through GlaxoSmithKline Consumer Healthcare Services, GSK’s support for the last three years. The Kalazar Project: Spreading Health Awareness in North Bihar remains one of the flagship and recognized programs managed by CAF India. The project was renewed again in 2012 because the project has been successful in reducing the cases of Kalazar by improving the existing service delivery procedure and creating awareness in the community with the support of the GSK grant. The achievements of this project have been manifold. 36 villages in 6 Blocks in 3 Districts of North Bihar have been networked and officials have been sensitized on the issue of Kalazar. Over the years of support the number of Kalazar cases has been decreasing. Before this intervention the number of cases per village ranged from 10-15 and post intervention it has gone down to 1-2 or even zero. The project has grown each year reaching out to more and more villages and the journey of the project intervention has been from a point where no priority was given to the disease in the project areas, where no one from the government PHCs, district officials had come forward for awareness and correct information dissemination. Further, no implementing NGO was working on Kalazar in these areas to a point where now the project has achieved special recognition by the Govt. of Bihar on Kalazar issues. This is a big achievement of the project as this way the project will have an impact on all districts of Bihar. This project has created a body of knowledge that can be readily used by a range of stakeholders, including policy makers, donors, and civil society organizations (CSOs) such as non-governmental organizations (NGOs), the mass media, and academia. They will now also be used by ANM and ASHA workers in all the 462 PHCs in 34 districts of Bihar.

GSK continued its support for providing health awareness and support in the villages of Sonpur. In all a total of 3069 patients were treated through the health centers situated in Khundpur and Sheera village. A total of 11 12 ANCs and 25 PMNs cases were observed and were referred to government hospital for further check – up, 200 general patients cases were also referred to government hospital for advance treatments. During the calendar year there were total of 61 new birth and all these births were conducted safely and in institution. Simultaneously life skills workshop, awareness camps, meetings with stakeholders in the community were held.

This year GSK also through CAF India provided for the Old Age home situated in Gautampuri Delhi. The grant provides for food, shelter, clothes, medical care to destitute, bedridden, Dementia and Alzheimer’s affected 22 old people at the home. CAF India organized a day for the GSK employees to visit the home as well and spend time with the beneficiaries of the project.
Canon India Private Limited

Canon India Private Limited as a corporate believes in being socially responsible and has made CSR activities sustained and effective. Canon being an imaging industry, the focus so far has been on Eye Care. CAF India in 2011 supported Canon in a six-month project conducting eye screening camps in Haryana, Delhi and Rajasthan reaching out to 5000 beneficiaries.

While Eye care remains a cause close to Canon’s philosophy, the company was keen to move a step further under their CSR vision and focus on Holistic Village Intervention.

In order to fulfill Canon’s CSR vision, CAF India designed a project around the thematic area of Eye Care and Education for Canon India in Ferozpuramak district, Nuh District, Mewadh, Haryana.

In addition to monitoring, managing the grant and ensuring the timely implementation of the project, CAF India worked very closely at the planning stage with all stakeholders, starting from choosing the correct implementing partners, identifying a suitable village, conducting a need assessment to designing a three year long holistic intervention that would lead to a positive social change both on the ground creating an impact visible both to the donor and beneficiaries. CAF India ensured that a village close to Canon’ corporate office was identified which would enable Canon employees to engage with the community and would allow the company to establish a long term relationship in the community.

Since the launch of the project, a resource center has been established in Ferozpuramak Government School. In addition a vision center has been set up in the community and a vision technician has been appointed. 716 patients have been examined till date and 152 children have been screened. 55 patients have been referred to for surgery to the hospital and 29 cataract surgeries have been conducted.

A teacher training programme, infrastructure development in the school, employee volunteering activities, eye screenings and eye camps, recruitment of a person from the village who will be trained to manage the vision center in order to ensure sustainability of the center are few activities planned under these two interventions. Further through CAF’s support Canon is keen to take on a third intervention around the thematic area of Environment which will be designed for the next phase.

Support From Policy Makers and Opinion Leaders

The campaign has succeeded in reaching out to several important stakeholders and galvanizing their support. Some prominent names amongst them are:

1. Kapil Sibal: Union Cabinet Minister for Human Resources and Development
2. Dr. Bindeshwar Pathak: Stockholm Water Award winner and Founder of Sulabh International.
3. Dia Mirza: Leading Film Actress from India
4. Robert Swan, OBE: Polar Explorer, First person to walk to North and South Pole
5. Nita Ambani: Chairperson of Reliance Foundation

National and local media extensively covered each aspect of this highly visible campaign. With several articles on the progress and impact of this campaign appearing in leading newspapers, the campaign acquired a positive momentum encouraging many important stakeholders to take notice.

Support My School Campaign was showcased at several international forums including Singapore International Water Week (2011) and Stockholm International Water Week (2011). These forums also offered opportunity to imbibe and share best practices from this campaign.

The buildup phase culminated in a 12 hour unique Telethon aired live on 4 NDTV Channels. The Telethon helped campaign gain wide scale momentum reaching out to millions of people across India.

The Visibility campaign and fundraising activity was instrumental in helping raise pledges of contribution of over USD 1.1 million against a target of USD 1 million. The total value of pledges including in-kind contribution was over 1.5 million.

The contribution came in from thousands of Individual donors, over 50 corporate citizens and several foundations.

With pledges of over a million dollars in hand, Charities Aid Foundation, India (CAF India) led the implementation of the schools through a network of grassroot NGOs. A clusterise approach was adopted for execution of project with each cluster comprising of 5-8 schools. This strategy for selection of schools helped economize the cost of implementation and also increase impact in the region. These clusters encompassing 100 schools spread across 10 states then became the unit of impact for the campaign.

“I am honored to be associated with this noble campaign. It is my belief that a multi-lateral partnership of this kind is an appropriate initiative to catalyze a movement towards building healthy, active and happy schools.”

Sachin Tendulkar,
Campaign Ambassador
Grant Making at CAF India personalises our mission of promoting strategic giving. We work towards aligning every charitable giving to investment principles and business practices and offer authentic and sustainable solutions to challenges facing Indian society today. Our Grant Making team has helped change the lives of thousands of people. We do this by disbursing funds to over 40 districts in 17 states across India through our partner NGOs.

NGO Validation: Our key strength lies in doing independent and in-depth due diligence of non-profits and providing an impartial and robust assessment of each one. Each assessment analyses their track record and capacity skills, with a view to maximising the potential of each grant. This enables our donors to make an informed choice about their donations and investments. Our in-depth understanding of both the charity and business worlds.

Capacity Building: Over the last five years we have proactively engaged in building capacity in the non-profit sector. This has involved a wide range of practices, from producing guidelines, creating frameworks for managing projects, to organising capacity building workshops through to providing learning opportunities for non-profit leaders and organisations.

Community Development Initiatives: Building a long term sustainable strategy is key to being the most of a company’s corporate responsibility. We are experts in developing corporate responsibility strategies that will make a difference to the community. We partner with companies to build and expand their community investment programmes within their foundation.

Programme Design and Delivery: We help donors design, develop and manage their sustainable giving programmes from a cause of their choosing. Donors also have the option of investing in our comprehensive Programmes covering a range of causes, namely: education, health, early childhood development (balwadi), culture and heritage and disaster preparedness.

NGO Partnership Support: We provide advisory support to NGOs, Trusts or Societies in the areas of institutional development, capacity building, strategic and operational issues, fund raising and public relations and communications.

Research: We undertake stand alone consulting, feasibility studies and research projects to enable companies, foundations and individual donors to gain a deeper understanding of the needs of communities to help meet their giving objectives.

Institutional Development: We partner with companies to build and expand their community investment programmes within their foundation.

Disaster Support: We are active in facilitating donations from companies, individuals and international partners for non-profits, working to rehabilitate victims from natural disasters.
Transforming Lives

A Story of Success

It is believed that once a farmer always a farmer, but that is no more a reality in India and U. Srinivas from Andhra Pradesh didn’t do anything different to change the old saying.

Srinivas did something that most wouldn’t do. He believed in himself to succeed. Failures were part of his life but he converted all failures into learning leading to success.

Srinivas comes from Gajawada village, Medak district in Andhra Pradesh. Born as a son to a farmer, life was never a bed of roses for him. His father was a seasonal agricultural laborer who didn’t have a livelihood. He somehow managed to send Srinivas to school only to complete his 10th standard.

Due to continuous drought and lack of proper irrigational facility the land to own or enough to feed his family. His father was a seasonal agricultural laborer who didn’t have a livelihood. He somehow managed to send Srinivas to school only to complete his 10th standard.

The program took care of his accommodation and had a great learning environment, wherein he enrolled for basic English learning. The well rounded and creatively conceptualized program gave Srinivas an opportunity to learn computers and English very well. He eventually completed his two year Vocational Intermediate course in 2012.

Srinivas says “Before joining the ACCENTURE sponsored, ‘Skill to Succeed program it was very difficult for me to read and write English. I thank Skill to Succeed program and the people who helped me to make me fly…fly high!!”

Today Srinivas, the son of a farmer is working for a hardware company, CTC at Secunderabad.

This professional education has given him the confidence and freedom to pursue his dreams and become self-reliant. The program has imparted him the all important job oriented technical skills to earn a livelihood.

But Srinivas never lost hope nor did he lack determination. Having overcome adverse situations in his life, he prepared himself for an opportunity to arrive in the form of Accenture to succeed program. CAF India has been associated with ACCENTURE leading this program at the grass root for people like Srinivas, who aspire to have a dignified life, a life of purpose.

The days were hot on the street and wind used to embrace us at night. The heat was unbearable within us when we used to go short of drugs. We used to lie down half naked under the sun with the rays trespassing our darkness.

We used to sleep on the divider (main road), separating the life with reality. The traffic and the light traveling, left and right. The noise kept us awake in slumber.

Bread used to be our staple food. Milk was luxury. I still remember, Pardeep, a tea seller, had a weird temperament. He used to chase us down the street for spoiling his customers. We used to hang out at his tea stall. He didn’t like my other friends. But had a soft corner for me.

At night, while closing his shop, he will call me over to give some snacks for the night.

The feeling of working gives me great joy and satisfaction. An effort that gives me bread to eat and sleep content. A livelihood for 5 years. I am so blessed to get this opportunity to know myself. The feeling of working gives me great joy and satisfaction.

I ran again from the street to seek someone to understand the perspective towards life. I wanted someone to assure and re-confirm my right to dignified life.

You know, when all doors of happiness closes on you, one door is kept open to see the path to happiness. I could see the door open, I found the path…

I found my dignity… My path was redefined by SUPPORT Rehabilitation center in association with CAF India, where I worked for 5 years. I am so blessed to get this opportunity to know myself. The feeling of working gives me great joy and satisfaction.

An effort that gives me bread to eat and sleep content. A livelihood that I have earned out of hard work.

I worked as Peer educator in the Boys’ rehab center. Its so real, when they say “only thirsty man knows the value of water”. I could understand those boys rescued from the street and the life they had with no one to seek.

I could see myself in them…. Today I am working as a house keeper in a private company earning Rs. 5000 a month. The joy of working and having a respect is something I can’t translate in words. The happiness of getting back to my family is something beyond my comprehension.

I am back home now, to Haveri, Karnataka, my birth place. I feel like a warrior who has won the war in the midst of losing many battles.

I have a sense of smell became numb. I chose to be rescued, I chose to live. Live with dignity and not rot on the street.

Transforming Lives

“I ran from home at an age of 8 for something that I thought is worth more than my life. I lived on the street for many years. I had friends on the street sniffing powder and consuming drugs. It used to make us fly… fly high!!” – says Baswaraaj

Requiem for a home

The days were hot on the street and wind used to embrace us at night. The heat was unbearable within us when we used to go short of drugs. We used to lie down half naked under the sun with the rays trespassing our darkness.

We used to sleep on the divider (main road), separating the life with reality. The traffic and the light traveling, left and right. The noise kept us awake in slumber.

Bread used to be our staple food. Milk was luxury. I still remember, Pardeep, a tea seller, had a weird temperament. He used to chase us down the street for spoiling his customers. We used to hang out at his tea stall. He didn’t like my other friends. But had a soft corner for me.

At night, while closing his shop, he will call me over to give some snacks for the night.

My 10 years on street was tough. To look back what I have gone through, I thank god that I was the luckiest to be rescued by him. None of my friends got the chance to get back home, probably out of choice!!

I guess it was that willingness and introduction that led me to get off the street.
